

Make it their song.

A few honest details can say more than a perfect speech. Use this worksheet to find yours.

Who is the song for?

Names, relationship to you, nicknames and any pronunciation notes.

What are you celebrating or remembering?

An occasion, milestone or feeling you want to recognise.

Three details only you would know

A small memory, a familiar saying, a habit or a place you share.

What is the one thing you want them to hear?

Try finishing: "If you remember one thing from this song, let it be..."

Plan it in your own words. We can help shape the lyrics.

Choose the feeling.

There is no need to know music terminology. Plain words are enough.

Style, energy and language

For example: a warm country song, a soulful dedication or an upbeat celebration.

Must-include details and anything to avoid

Check spellings. Note topics, words or memories you do not want included.

Before you place your order

- ☐ Choose one song or three, and prepare a separate brief for each song.
- ☐ Check names, pronunciation, language and the message you want to give.
- ☐ If a date is essential, confirm availability with the studio before paying.
- ☐ Artwork, videos and instrumental versions need a separate scope and quote.
- ☐ Share only material you have permission to use; leave out sensitive personal details.
